the author is to prove this and show how it is effected. He says, page 50.

"The Logos [the Creative Reason, God] as the Grand Causality, actualizes itself in a spiritual body, and through that in the material man; and that the human form in this world of the senses, is what the spiritual body is in the world above the senses, is what the spiritual body is in the world above the senses. Again:

""All nature is but a language subsisting from ideas in the Logos, which deas continue self-subsistent, whatever exterior forms they may take. Look at the animal creation from the half-reflecting Elephant to the Ant that perambulates the subterranean streets of its little city, every form is but expressive of ideas in this all actuating Reason. What is an instinct but an idea — an individual ation of the Logos, golng forth to actualize itself in a world of material forms—an idea which, when actualized in form, fully and perfectly expresses itself to the senses—ay, does more—goes forth into action and so passes to all its necessary and logical results. Dathicted with a very violent cough, with pain in my side and breast, soreness of the lungs, shortness of breath, loss of appetite, night sweats, &c. I made trial of various remedies, which were recommended highly in the papers, but gradually grew worse. The violence of my cough was such, that the blood rushed profusely from my nostrils, when the proxysms of coughing came 1900 me; indeed my whole system seemed producted, and the hour of my departure seemed near at hand. At this time you recommended the use of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, which immediately began to soothe, comfort, and allay the violence of my cough, relieved the pain in my side, attengthened and healed my lungs, xc. i continued the use of it; but now, thanks to God, and to the effect of your COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY, I am cured, and also to pursue my daily labor. I think it an invaluable medicine in Coughs, Colds, and D seases of the Lungs, and one that should be known to all efficied. If persons would purchase the original and genuine article, as prepared by you, and not tamper with the many spurious and worthless preparations which are attempted to be pained of on the reputations of yours, it might be the means of saving many valuable fives. I freely offer this statement for the benefit of those who are suffering as I was.
